Rugby World Cup

This week, three of our Year 5 boys had the privilege of being on the pitch for the Men's Rugby World Cup quarter finals England vs Papua New Guinea. Jack G and Arthur C walked the players onto the pitch and greeted The Princess of Wales, whilst Jacob W showed his rugby knowledge by being interviewed live in front of over 21,000 fans! What a fantastic experience!

Weekly Book Review

Miss Prescott recommends:
Ruby's Worry by Tom Percival

'One of my favourite books to read with the children is Ruby's Worry as it promotes the importance of sharing and talking about our worries with others. At the beginning Ruby hides her worry and as her worry grows, it stops her from being her adventurous self. Ruby then finds a friend and discovers that everyone has worries and talking with a friend can help them both to shrink their worries.'

George Deakin in Y6K recommends:
The River of Ink by Helen Dennis

'This is my favourite book because it uses a lot of tension to build up to an unexpected plot twist! It is jam-packed with action and adventure. It is a part of a series of books which are all equally thrilling as the rest.'

Class Attendance

The winners of this week's class attendance reward are Y1R with 100% and Y5H with 99.7%. Fantastic!!
